Course Description: A Continuation of Movie Musicals

As a continuation of our very popular “The New Age of Movie Musicals” course, “A Continuation of Movie Musicals” focuses on classic and new movie musicals that we all love! Movie Musicals continue to be a staple in households across the world.

Students will learn about advancements in the technology of film, movie musical stars of our decade, gain new perspectives on and apply analytic skills to gain full appreciation of these movies.

Some examples of movies that we will be covering are Little Shop of Horrors, The Sound of Music, Footloose, Annie and Mama Mia II: Here We Go Again!

Your Instructor

Courtney Braun is thrilled to be joining PBS for another remote learning class! Courtney is currently a graduate student at The Stony Brook University School of Social Welfare specializing in Physical, Psychological and Social Well Being. Courtney attended the Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival (KCACTF) two years in a row, representing Suffolk Community College in their productions of Hair and Gypsy. Previously, Courtney has worked alongside various famous artists such as Ben Vereen. Courtney has been performing for over 17 years and has a strong background in performing, choreographing, and directing numerous shows. She is a founding member of CAST, the Community of Actors for Supported Theater on Long Island based at Think Big Theatre Arts. She looks forward to seeing familiar faces old and new as we laugh our way through the semester with one another.

PBS Adult Education classes are taught using various instructional methods tailored to the specific needs of adult learners. Students will be encouraged to develop critical thinking, research and study skills, and utilize technology for learning and collaboration. All students benefit from being engaged with interesting material and collaborating with other students.
