Course Description: Harry Potter from Page to Screen: Goblet of Fire

Welcome students for another semester at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft & Wizardry at PBS!

Following our successful semester focusing on The Prisoner of Azkaban, students will explore the next book in the Harry Potter Series: The Goblet of Fire. Students will be reading the book both in class and on their own to focus on literary elements and themes.

Once complete, the class will view the film version through an analytical lens, comparing and contrasting the two works and how this piece (and the totality of the Harry Potter phenomenon) has impacted the world.

Your Instructor

Courtney Braun is thrilled to be joining PBS for another remote learning class! Courtney is currently a graduate student at The Stony Brook University School of Social Welfare specializing in Physical, Psychological and Social Well Being. Courtney attended the Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival (KCACTF) two years in a row, representing Suffolk Community College in their productions of Hair and Gypsy. Previously, Courtney has worked alongside various famous artists such as Ben Vereen. Courtney has been performing for over 17 years and has a strong background in performing, choreographing, and directing numerous shows. She is a founding member of CAST, the Community of Actors for Supported Theater on Long Island based at Think Big Theatre Arts. She looks forward to seeing familiar faces old and new as we laugh our way through the semester with one another.

PBS Adult Education classes are taught using various instructional methods tailored to the specific needs of adult learners. Students will be encouraged to develop critical thinking, research and study skills, and utilize technology for learning and collaboration. All students benefit from being engaged with interesting material and collaborating with other students.
