Course Description: The Wonderful World of Cartoons

Animated movies and TV shows have been around for quite some time and the majority of us have watched and enjoyed many of them while growing up. Many cartoons have in-depth stories and deep meaning in addition to great entertainment value. They have progressed a lot since they first came on the scene, with the likes of Hanna-Barbera, Warner Brothers, Walter Lantz, Disney and others. Cartoons are loved around the world. In the class, we will talk about the history of cartoons and how they have developed over the years in their art and overall content. We will also be discussing the importance of them in our culture and how they influenced other forms of media. I hope you all will join me in this class to have fun and learn.

That's all, folks!

Your Instructor

Vincent Gamboni is the instructor. Vince is immersed in the popular and fandom culture. Throughout the years, he has gone to events such as Comic-Con and other popular culture conventions, where he gets to dress up as some of his favorite characters from the anime world. Vince is also a Personal Trainer and Crossfit Coach, Direct Support Professional and a Community Integration Specialist at PBS Consulting.

Vince is excited to be sharing his passion and learning from the students. And having fun in the process!

PBS Adult Education classes are taught using various instructional methods tailored to the specific needs of adult learners. Students will be encouraged to develop critical thinking, research and study skills, and utilize technology for learning and collaboration. All students benefit from being engaged with interesting material and collaborating with other students.
