My Life, My Job!

Vocational readiness skills help students prepare for future careers in their areas of interest. In this class, students will explore career options, learn job readiness skills, set career goals, and learn vocational vocabulary. Lessons will focus on self-advocacy skills, brainstorming dream jobs, making great first impressions, understanding “soft skills”, and getting meaningful work experiences. Learning an array of skills including the importance of manners, dressing for success, understanding workplace etiquette, how proper voice, body language and attitude can impact success or failure as a job applicant. Students will be empowered to succeed. Students will learn resume and cover letter writing skills, as well as interviewing and post-interview follow-up.

Students will also have the opportunity to role play a variety of job scenarios and create their own resume. We will conduct mock interviews to promote confidence and achieving a comfort level in real-life work situations.

Meet the Instructor

Dan Elfawal earned his Masters degree in Special Education/Elementary Education from Touro College. He is a certified Special Education and yoga teacher. He has been educating children and adults for over 14 years and is currently an Educational Consultant at Positive Behavior Support Consulting & Psychological Resources, P.C., where he has worked for over 11 years. In his career, he has served as crisis counselor, SEIT teacher, parent trainer, job coach, and job developer. He has worked in various settings, including K-12 classrooms, colleges, and the greater Long Island community. Most recently, Dan has collaborated with educators from Penn State University and the University of Texas-El Paso to teach hip-hop and cultural studies to adults in continuing education.

PBS Adult Education classes are taught using various instructional methods tailored to the specific needs of adult learners. Students will be encouraged to develop critical thinking, research and study skills, and utilize technology for learning and collaboration. All students inherently benefit from being engaged in an active college environment.
