The Evolution of Hip Hop II

This course will explore the history of hip hop and its culture, including music, dance, fashion, economics, politics, and entertainment. Building off of the previous course, Evolution of Hip Hop 1, this course will explore the current state of hip hop, and delve into the 1990's and 2000's. We will also review hip hop's roots in jazz, funk, rhythm and blues, and soul from the early 1970s and 1980s.

Topics covered in the course will be the four elements of hip hop, hip hop's commercialization and global impact, famous hip hop dances and party hits throughout the ages, hip hop's impact on youth, and women in hip hop.

This course will also explore the dichotomy within hip hop including what makes a hip hop artist authentic (race, class, sexuality, or gender).

There is still much to learn as hip hop enters its 45th year in existence.

Meet the Instructor

Dan Elfawal is a certified special education and yoga teacher. Dan enjoys teaching and learning from his students every day. The practice of yoga has changed Dan's life, leading him to live a healthier lifestyle and become a more compassionate person. Dan is filled with life and is known for his energetic, loving nature. He meets each student where they are.

PBS Adult Education classes are taught using various instructional methods tailored to the specific needs of adult learners. Students will be encouraged to develop critical thinking, research and study skills, and utilize technology for learning and collaboration. All students inherently benefit from being engaged in an active college environment.
