Musicals of the Stage & Screen

This course is guaranteed to thrill both film lovers and musical theatre lovers! Some Broadway Musicals become movies and some movies become Broadway shows. We will review a wide range of different popular productions, including:

- Lion King
- West Side Story
- Mary Poppins
- La La Land
- Wizard of Oz
- The Sound of Music

and more!

Students will learn the history of varying genres and decades of Broadway and Movie Musicals and how they continue to thrill audiences up to the present day. Students will also learn about famous Movie Musical Directors, choreographers, and producers while engaging in film analysis skills.

Meet the Instructor

Lauryn Brady earned her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Albany State University, a Master of Science in Education School Counseling from Hofstra and a Master of Social Work from Adelphi and is a Licensed Professional Social Worker. She began her career with the Nassau County Department of Mental Health and worked for New York City Board of Education as a High School Prevention/Intervention Counselor for at risk students. She has been involved with Positive Behavior Support Consulting & Psychological Resources for the past 10 years, working on the Transition Team and volunteering for the Community Foundation . Lauryn is currently an Adjunct Professor at Molloy College teaching Spirituality and Social Justice. She has worked with a wide array of individuals with differing skills and needs. Lauryn has seen over 50 Broadway musicals and is excited to share her knowledge of musicals through film. Come and enter this world of music, film and imagination.

PBS Adult Education classes are taught using various instructional methods tailored to the specific needs of adult learners. Students will be encouraged to develop critical thinking, research and study skills, and utilize technology for learning and collaboration. All students inherently benefit from being engaged in an active college environment.
